

Hello readers. This month's column is a little shorter than usual. My husband had a heart attack about a week before deadline, so I simply submitted what I had to the magazine. So what follows is a little shorter than usual. From the Holistic Resource:

What's in the Stars? by Psychic Astrologer Aynne McAvoy

We begin to look at the stars for June and see that Venus moves into earth grounded Taurus on June 6 and Jupiter in Libra goes direct on June 9. This is a positive movement for all of us. While Jupiter was in retrograde, we had the feeling that things weren't quite right; like we were busy attempting to fit square pegs into round holes and getting very frustrated all the way around. Now we have Jupiter back as it should be, and most things will work much better! Make hay while the sun shines isn't just an old saying. It refers to farmers getting their hay in on time, and it cannot be done properly in the rain! So I say to you, make hay and run with it! Now is the time for greater cooperation and wins all the way around.

Jupiter in Libra continues to square Pluto retrograde in Capricorn.

Challenges (squares) should be considered a good thing. I know I can get a bit lazy with things sometimes and I need to be challenged to wake up and pay attention and get back into the game. So we should view these challenges as good and needed wake up calls!

As one of my favorite teachers said, "This is a time when all that ugly stuff that you tried very hard not to see is suddenly thrown up right in front of your face. It can no longer be avoided and must be dealt with".

It is to our benefit that the great benefic, Jupiter, is involved in this challenge. Things could be MUCH tougher. The fact that Jupiter is indeed involved in this challenge means we need to cooperate with each other some how, to make this work.

Neptune goes retrograde on the 16th of June. This is actually a good thing, because it will clear up any illusions that you are currently floating around in. Each of us attempts to cover up a situation in our lives with a filmy veil of what we wish it was, rather than what it really is! Now is the time that we can gently lift that veil up and see the illusion for what it truly is. Chances are, will not be nearly as scary as you thought it would be! Trust that this process is a good thing, and it is meant to bring about a more practical and logical approach to how you handle this issue in your life.

Jupiter in Libra squares Pluto in Capricorn.

The fire trine of Saturn in Sagittarius vs Uranus in Aries continues, but is stronger in first two weeks then grows a bit weaker as the month continues and the aspects start to move out of orb. As always, take what you need and leave the rest. Aynne McAvoy is a psychic life counselor in Palm Coast, Florida.
